

Nashville Family Coalition Meeting
Thursday, August 10, 2017
5:45-7:15pm

It's Back to School Time! Join us for the latest updates on the Individual Education Accounts (IEA) for Students with Disabilities – Who is eligible? How much funding is available? What does it cover? How do you enroll? What has changed?

Though it is too late to enroll for the current school year, applications for the 2018-2019 school year are due in March – If you are even considering the IEA program, now is the time to plan!

Other information sharing – status of Medicaid funding, proposed elimination of critical federal organizations such as the Council on Developmental Disabilities, the LEND program and more
